

✍ YouTube Short Script – “Make Your Choice” (Final Final)

> Most people are dead inside.
They're just comfortable enough not to notice.

Discomfort isn't the enemy.
It's the teacher.

Pain isn't punishment.
It's the price of waking up.

The truth will set you free.
But only if it's broken you first.

We traded our souls for comfort.
Now we suffer the pain of not having a soul.

Our ancestors feared being eaten by lions.
We panic over what to order on the menu.

You want to live?
Choose it.

Or choose to go back to sleep.

Just don't complain.
Make your choice —
then shut the hell up.
